

The Daily Gazetteer.

NUMBER 2571

TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 6. 1743.

Copenhagen, September 4.

All the rest of our Military Preparations go on space, so General Arnold, who commands in Norway, and who has been some time here in order to receive his Majesty's Instructions, sails this Day, in order to assemble 18,000 Men in that Kingdom; and carries with him Arms for 10,000

A Notion begins to prevail here, that some Change will be made in the Destination of this Army. In the mean time, our Taxes make us very unhappy; and there appears a much stronger Spirit of Diligence than has been remembred. The Grounds of this position may be the better judg'd of, when the Nature of these Impositions is further known. By the Act which settles these, they stand thus: All the King's Subjects are to pay Two per Cent. according to what their Estates shall be estimated; all Pensions exceeding the yearly Value of 2000 Crowns, shall be subject, hence-ward, to a Deduction of Twenty-two per Cent; all Sons in his Majesty's Service, whose Salaries amount to 200 Crowns, are to pay Two per Cent; People of Quality are to be distributed into various Ranks, and are to pay according to their respective Qualities and Employments; all their upper Servants, Stewards, Valet de Chambres, &c. to pay four Crowns each; their other Servants two; every Gentleman, Ecclesiastick, Physician, Advocate, and Attorney, to pay forty Crowns; Workmen and Tradesmen according to their Estates. There has been likewise two Crowns impos'd upon my Saddle Horse; and the Taxes on Wines, Brandies, &c. in short, upon almost every Thing, have been augmented. His Majesty has nam'd the Brigade-Majors, Quarter-Masters, &c. of the Army. Capt. Ziehenhorn appointed Captain of the Pontons, and Capt. Tuffen-ger, Waggon-Master general.

Madrid, August 22. All the Court is at St. Ildefonso, and are said to be in good Health; this we know to be the case of the Princes and Princesses, because we see them frequently in the Gardens; but the Cafe is not quite so far as to their Majesties, who never stir abroad at all. Father Clarke, an Irish Jesuit, Confessor to the King, has been surpriz'd lately with a total Palsy; upon which Father de Fevre, a Burgundian, that is, in plain English, French Man, who has been intrusted with the Education of the Royal Children, is appointed the King's Intercessor in his stead, and is to be succeeded in his former Office, by the Rev. Father Panel, who is likewise Burgundian, and enjoys the Post of King's Antiquary present. The Register Ship which arriv'd lately in the Port of Bayonne, brought One Million and a half of Pieces of Eight, and Goods to the Value of 600,000 Pounds. About 800,000 Pieces of Eight belong to the Commerce, and the rest to the King.

Berlin, September 3. M. Voltaire is the reigning Favorite here; he dined on the 31st with the Queen Mother, and has Lodgings in the Castle which was formerly given to M. Maupertius. The Day before Yesterday the King diverted himself in a very extraordinary manner. The Grenadiers took Post at Schonenberg, where they fortified themselves; the Hussars then attempted to attack that Village, but were oblig'd to defer, by the warm Fire made by the Grenadiers. They then attempted to harass the Gendarmes in their March, their Regiment being to pass through a Defile; the Hussars took down a Bridge, and then fell upon the Rear Guard with prodigious Cries, after their manner. On their coming out of the Defile, another Troop of Hussars appear'd, who were all this time conceal'd in a Wood; and they, with equal Fury, attack'd in the Van, and these Skirmishes continued till his Majesty was return'd pretty near the City. The French Minister, and M. Voltaire, were in Raptures at the Sight, and affirm'd, his Majesty's Grenadiers, Gendarmes, and Hussars, were altogether invincible, and not to be beat even by one another. Baron Spou is arrived here in Quality of Imperial Minister; the Chevalier de Rose, who lately resided here with that Character, died at Leipzick, in his return to Franckfort. There is great Whispering about a Conspiracy lately discovered at Petersbourg, in which, it is said, some Foreign Minister has had a Share, and that this will shortly be made publick to all Europe; but we treat the whole Affair as an idle Story.

IRELAND.

Dublin, August 30. Last Week Joshua Davys, Esq; Counsellor at Law, was married to Miss Roan, Niece to Counsellor Roan.

Sunday Morning last at early Service in Catherine's Church, some Rogues who had got into the Gallery, alarmed the Congregation with the Cry of Fire, which put the People in great Confusion, and in the running out, lost Hats, Wiggs, &c. which the Rogues carried off.

We hear that the Right Rev. Dr. Whitcomb, Bishop of Clogher and Kilmodough, was married a few Days ago to Mrs. Congrave, Relict of Ambrose Congrave, of Waterford Esq.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Colchester, September 2. On Friday Evening an unhappy Accident happened near Hadleigh, in Suffolk, viz. one Bautry, charg'd with being a Smugler, and Mr. Goodall, a Farmer, meeting in the Road, a Dispute arose about giving the Way, which being carried high, both dismounted, and fought; when Bautry finding himself over-match'd, took a Pistol from his Pocket, and fired at Mr. Goodall, whom he miss'd; but shot one George Hows, a Man who stood at a small Distance to see the Combat, thro' the Body, of which Wound he died a few Minutes after, leaving a Wife and several Children, unprovided for. Bautry then mounted his Horse, and rode off without his Hat and Wig, to Hadleigh, where he obtained a Hat, and proceeded in his Escape.

LONDON.

The Prince of Friesenberg, Great Master of the Household to the Emperor, is gone to Dresden, with some Propositions of the last Importance; but it is believed that he will not meet with much Success.

Baron Menzel had penetrated farther into Lorraine, but for an Accident that befall him at Bockenheim, where he met with 7 Mules laden with Gold, for the Payment of the Troops. They were attended by a strong Escort of Dragoons, whom the Baron first beat, and then posses'd himself of the Money. A few Hours after he receiv'd an Express, by which he was directed to return immediately to the Army of the Allies.

The Duke de Gevres lately presented to their most Christian Majesties two very fine Birds, of a Species altogether unknown; their Feathers are wonderfully beautiful, and they are larger than any Birds in the Menagerie, except the Ostriches.

It is said, that M. Laumarie, Nephew to the Marquis of the same Name, Minister from the French King in Sweden, who lately went Post through Brussels from Stockholm to Versailles, carries with him a very exact Account of the late Conspiracy at Petersbourg, as it was communicated to his Uncle by M. d'Allion, who is the French Minister at the Court of Russia, and who sent those Dispatches by his Secretary, M. Montemar.

Private Letters from the Hague say, that Count Wolf, Privy-Councillor to his Prussian Majesty, was arriv'd there from Paris, in his Way to Berlin.

The Preston Man of War, Lord Northesk, from East India, is arriv'd at Spithead; he left the Dover Merchant, and the five Homeward bound Ships near the Chops of the Chanel. We hear the Winchester East India Man, Capt. Steward, (who was in Company with the Princess Louisa when she was lost on the Isle of May) is lost on the Coast of Brazil, but the Captain, Crew, and Cargo are sav'd.

The Minerva, Cloud, and the Elizabeth, Quarne, from South Carolina for London, are taken and carried into Bilboa.

Yesterday began the Quarter Sessions at Guildhall, when a great Number of Debtors confined in the Fleet Prison, Ludgate, and the two Compters, were discharged, pursuant to the Act which past last Sessions of Parliament for the Relief of Insolvent Debtors.

The rich Wedding Cloaths for her Royal Highness the Princess Louisa, who is speedily to be espoused to the Prince Royal of Denmark, has been shewn to Persons of Quality only, for several Days past.

Yesterday they began to drain the Canal in St. James's Park, which is almost choak'd up with Mud, having not been clean'd for 36 Years past. There is a Dam made across about the Middle, and only one Part can be done this Season. A great Quantity of Carp, and other Fish, were taken out, and put into the Pond in the Wilderness.

On Tuesday last the Rev. Mr. Morley Unwin, was instituted, by the Lord Bishop of Norwich, to the Rectory of Grimston, in the County of Norfolk.

The same Day Mr. Rogers was elected Sheriff of the City of Norwich. The Numbers on the Poll being, for Mr. Rogers 1066, for Mr. Bates 842.

Yesterday John Brown, a Boy of about 14 Years of Age, was committed to Newgate by Mr. Alderman Bernard, for picking the Pocket of Mr. Josias Taylor, late of Bishopsgate-street, Grocer, of a Silk Hankerchief value 2s.

As was also William Henshaw for stealing out of the Shop of Mr. John Alcock, of Cripplegate, Silversmith, a Silver Button, and a Silver Buckle, value 6s.
